Red Supply Lines Hit By Sea-Air Barrage

TOKYO, Saturday, Oct. 14 (AP)—Mighty Allied sea-air power slashed at the Red Korean east coast supply line almost to the Siberian border Friday as American infantrymen carved into 20,000 Reds trapped on the road to the Red capital of Pyongyang.

Possibly indicating the naval bombardment may be continuing today—for the third straight day—the Reds' Chongjin radio remained silent. It went off the air Thursday, the day the ships began bombarding that industrial center.

Thirty-seven warships led by the battleship Missouri bombarded ports, rail lines and other communications facilities along a 130-mile strip of coast from Sonjin northward through flaming Chongjin, 140 miles southwest of Soviet Vladivostok.

Fighters and bombers of the U. S. Far East Air Forces ranged up and down the area at the same time, rocketing and bombing bridges, marshalling yards, warehouses, docks and wharfs.

Unsubstantiated speculation continued as to whether this second straight day of east coast blasting was the prelude to an Allied amphibious landing or a feint to draw Red attention from a landing in the west.

THERE WAS NO evidence of a new Allied landing anywhere on the Korean shores, and there was no comment on the possibility from anyone in General MacArthur's Tokyo headquarters.

A spearhead of the U. S. First Cavalry division snared the estimated 20,000 Reds when it swung in behind them Friday and seized the road junction town of Hanpo, 40 miles southeast of Pyongyang.

A spokesman for General MacArthur said American infantrymen were "cleaning up" on the pocketed troops. He said the fighting was fierce but that the foot cavalrymen had the upper hand.

Another first cavalry column striking from the east reached the town of Kumchon, eight miles south of Hanpo, a division spokesman announced. The column had traveled 20 miles north from the border city of Kaesong.

A third column of the First Cavalry was advancing slowly up the main road from Kaesong towards Kumchon, clearing Communist-planted mines as it moved. This column knocked out three Red tanks during the night of Thursday-Friday, and was last reported four miles south of Kumchon.

Two Red divisions were reported racing towards Kumchon from the Ongjin peninsula on the west coast 30 miles distant.

EAST OF THE U. S. First Cavalry and British Commonwealth troops, the South Korean Fifth division was striking towards Hanpo to complete the lock on the trapped Communist troops.

At the right of the Fifth, the South Korean Eighth division advanced north of Pyongyang, one-time Red defense center 90 miles southeast of Pyongyang.

On the far northeast end of the advancing Allied front, elements of the South Korean Third and Capital divisions unexpectedly rolled towards the north of captured Wonsan port.

Earlier they were reported three miles west of the big port city and heading west for Pyongyang.

Their change of direction indicated they were getting instead for the huge Red chemical manufacturing center of Hungnam and its port of Hamhung, 55 road miles north of Wonsan.

Norco Lad Sells Chickens To Get Home for Big Game

Roostin' roosters on the Norco side of the stands might have something to crow about today when Big Bill Jones, lanky wildcat left end, trots onto the East Greenville field against the Yellow Jackets.

But, if their cheers end in something that sounds like "Pennsylvania, Pennsylvania, cock-a-doodle-doo," don't be alarmed. It's just possible they're cheering two of the things that made it possible for Jones to play.

The 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Daniel Jones, Cedarville, is also the State FFA champion poultry judge.

For the past few days, he's been

NOW IT CAN BE DONE!

Traffic Signals Are 'Equalized'

Can you get through Pottstown easily without burning up your car and your temper?

Are the 12 High street traffic lights synchronized? The answer to both these questions—although the average motorist will disagree in loud protestation—is YES!

However, like so many other things hard to believe, there's a great big BUT hanging in the way.

Sixteen days ago a Mercury reporter spent an agonizing hour and a half in frenzy trying to find the most convenient route for getting from one end of the borough to the other.

He drove as an average motorist drives on High street; and when the experiment was over, the reporter had the same feelings the average driver experiences—chagrin and frustration.

Among other things, the test indicated that the motorist spends a lot of his time changing gears along High street's length.

It showed that Mr. Average Driver, faced with the pleasant prospect of long congested stretches such as between Adams and Madison streets, and Madison and Keim streets, is apt to tramp down a bit harder than usual on his accelerator.

IN ORDER to learn further what the puzzle of the High street lights might reveal, the same reporter yesterday talked to Borough Electrician William H. Price about the synchronization of the traffic signals.

Price said the lights were synchronized by individual control boxes and were timed as well as any centrally controlled system could be, considering the varying lengths of the distances between them.

Then the reporter last night wheeled his 1947 sedan up and down High street in an effort to establish for himself a driving speed within the law that would give him the best results.

IN ORDER to obtain a conclusion that would be indicative of the light synchronization itself—and only that, one factor—the reporter

Area Draftees Take Pre-Induction Tests, Return to Pottstown

Sixty-seven Pottstown area men were given their pre-induction physical examinations in Schuylkill arsenal, Philadelphia, yesterday.

When they returned early last night, the men said they had not been told whether they passed. They will be notified by mail within three to five days, examining officers told them.

R. Ross Longaker, clerk of Local Board 110, appointed Donald C. Haag, 33 High street, leader of the group, and Christopher J. Hollenbach 3d, 44 East Fifth street, assistant leader.

The men left Pottstown on the 7:20 a. m. train and had returned by early evening.

Their examination began with the mental test at 10 a. m., followed by the blood test. After their noon meal, they were given their physical examinations. All the work was finished by mid-afternoon, the men said.

PORTUGAL, U. S. INK PACT

LISBON, Portugal, Oct. 13 (AP)—Portugal and the United States today signed an agreement to the construction of extension wharves at Beira, a port in Portuguese East Africa.

The men left Pottstown on the 7:20 a. m. train and had returned by early evening.

His chickens—at least a goodly part of them—have made it possible for him to get home in time. He sold them to pay for his fare and should arrive in Philadelphia at 4:30 o'clock this morning.

Jones left the past Sunday by car for Kansas City. He was accompanied by Neal Burton, Norco agriculture instructor; Paul Young, Unionville, State FFA champion livestock judge; Wayne Althouse, Cochranville, outstanding Chester county FFA boy of 1949, and Leonard Bauman Jr., Pottstown RD 1, who drove the car.

NEW U. S. CURBS PUT ON CREDIT SALES TO BE HIT

Installment Time Cut Seen as Blow Here by Car, Appliance Dealers

Local new and used car dealers and home appliance merchants will be hit especially, members of those groups indicated last night, by a stiffening of consumer credit curbs to become effective Monday.

Only the past Sept. 18 the Federal Reserve board ordered its first set of curbs into effect. Autos, television sets, radios, major home appliances and furniture will be affected.

The tightening up order: Cuts the payoff limit on installment purchases of automobiles from 21 to 15 months, while leaving the cash down payment at one-third of the price. The new rules equal the stiffest World War II terms on automobiles.

Jumps the down payment on television sets, radios and major household appliances from 15 to 25 percent and cuts the payoff time from 18 months to 15.

Raises the down payment on furniture from 10 to 15 percent, and cuts the payoff limit from 18 months to 15.

In addition, the board applied the down payment requirements to all regulated articles costing $50 or more. The initial terms, fixed Sept. 18, had exempted articles costing up to $100.

MARVIN S. Reider, president of the Pottstown Automobile company, said he believed the new order would slow down all auto buying and "hurt the used car market terrifically."

"We have never sold on less than a third of the price down and never allowed payments more than 24 months. But a lot of these used car dealers have had much longer terms and less down money," he said.

Because of this, he said, used cars were moving off the lots at healthy speed and "it's kept the market reasonable."

But, since the curbs were imposed the past month, he said, his used car stock has tripled, despite the fact that he has chopped prices $100 to $300. When used cars don't sell allowances on them for new cars tend to drop, he said.

ADDING TO THE used car dealer's woes is the drafting and calling to active service of young men who make up a majority of used car consumers.

The new car trade will suffer somewhat, he conceded, by the 15-month limitation. But nothing like used car markets.

The "864 question," he said, is what will happen if enough people are scared away from car buying. In the light of risk (Continued on Page Three)

For Her Leisure in Retirement

Robert P. Smith, president of Mrs. Smith's Pie company, tunes in the new television set that the company gave Anna C. Eimerbrink, the firm's first full-time employee, who is seated at her 377 Walnut street home in the platform rocker, also a gift from the company. Miss Eimerbrink, who retired recently and will be honored by a testimonial dinner tonight, helped the late Mrs. Amanda W. Smith make the first pies, for commercial use in the oven of a Pottstown home.

FIRM TO PAY HER HONOR

'Miss Annie' Baked First of Smith's Pies

By FRED C. SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Anna C. Eimerbrink, 377 Walnut street, who had her finger in the first pies baked commercially by Pottstown's Mrs. Amanda W. Smith, for whom Mrs. Smith's Pie company was named, will be honored by the firm tonight at a testimonial dinner.

The first and oldest full-time employee of the company, "Miss Annie," as she is known best to fellow workers, retired recently after 27 years with the company. She will be 73.

The company presented her this week with a television set and with a new rocking chair—a platform rocker, the kind Miss Eimerbrink wanted most.

These were presented to her by Robert P. Smith, president, and Ernest H. Struckmann, general plant manager in Pottstown.

When Miss Eimerbrink first came to work for Mrs. Smith, who died in November, 1947, Smith was the homemaker who baked the pies for the box carried on his mother in an old Dodge car. The box held 24 pies.

In those days, Miss Eimerbrink recalled, a good day's production for the kitchen in Mrs. Smith's home at South and Evans streets was 50 or 60 pies a day.

The present Pottstown plant turns out the equivalent of 25,000 to 30,000 of the 24-cent pies Mrs. Smith was baking in those days.

PRODUCTION CONTROL for the first pies was a far different thing than it is today, with the thermostatically-controlled ovens. There were no thermometers at all in their first oven, Miss Eimerbrink said. If they wanted to see how hot the oven was, they threw in a handful of flour and gauged with their practiced eye how fast it browned.

If they wanted to check on the pies, they relied either on their eye or the old-fashioned broom straw test. If a pie came out with dough sticking to it, the pie was not done.

As the budding firm's only employee in 1923, Miss Eimerbrink, a first cousin of Mrs. Smith's, worked closely with her. Either or both of them would mix, roll, bake and prepare the fruit as they worked (Continued on Page Three)

CLOSING OUT ANOTHER DECADE

At 90, She's Still Her Own Cook

Cooking always has been one of the favorite occupations of Mrs. Ada M. Gehris, of 139 South Washington street, Boyertown, and just because tomorrow is her 90th birthday she isn't going to stop.

She baked two Apple cakes and a grape pie the past Wednesday and was busy making pot pie for her noon meal when she was interviewed yesterday.

The white-haired Mrs. Gehris considers herself in good physical condition and is philosophical about having reached her 90th birthday.

"I guess, mentally and physically, I'm as good as can be expected," she said. I enjoy watching television, even though my eyesight is a bit poor. I can hear all right, eat a lot and always answer the telephone.

"I was sick off and on for the last 10 years," she added, "but I guess the Lord didn't want me yet."

MRS. GEHRIS WILL get a rest from some of her usual cooking tomorrow. Her daughter, Mrs. William Trout, of Boyertown, will prepare her birthday dinner and send it over to her mother's house tomorrow.

Mrs. Gehris started to work as a cigar maker at the David Erb cigar factory in Boyertown when she was in her teens. She was married to the late Ephraim Gehris when she was 19, on March 15, 1879, by the late Rev. Dr. Leonard Gron. Mr. Gehris died 40 years ago.

She lives with a son, Leroy, and three more of her children still are living. They are, in addition to Mrs. Trout, Isaac Gehris, of 433 East Philadelphia avenue, Boyertown, and William Gehris, of Birdsboro.

A brother, Thomas R. Shaner, lives at 20 North Penn street, Pottstown.

Local Builders Praise County Planning Move

Leading Pottstown contractors said yesterday they were in favor of a new ruling that plans for housing projects must be submitted for approval to the Montgomery County Planning commission after Oct. 31.

The commission sent town council announcement of the deadline Monday night with a set of specifications for project engineering and planning, including land standards, streets, building lines, suggested recreation areas and sewer and water service.

After Oct. 31, any builder in Montgomery county planning a homes project will have to receive the approval of the Planning group before he may go ahead. The group was formed early this year, and draws its authority from the state.

The three contractors who praised the ruling were Warren B. Zern, Allen K. Davidheiser and Anthony L. Veach.

"I don't think I'd object to it," declared Zern. "If a builder is going to put up a good home, he'll come up to the commission's specifications anyway."

ZERN THOUGHT that the new county ruling would neither restrict housing developments nor hurt the builders.

Veach pointed out, "They're not demanding any more than the VA or FHA is demanding."

Projects such as Brookside homes must include landscaping, curbing and other FHA or VA standards, also set forth by the county planning group, Veach pointed out. He said the specifications call for nothing that the builders already are not already required to do.

"I think it's a good thing for the builder," he declared. "The commission isn't being unreasonable at all."

A man who builds fewer than 50 homes a year, Veach believed, and also must meet VA or FHA standards, will not be adversely affected.

"We all have to conform to the standards of the community," he pointed out.

DAVIDHEISER went even farther than the two other Pottstown builders.

"I think it will improve our developments," he said. "We see some mistakes in town now that wouldn't have been made if we had had this thing earlier."

Davidheiser said he could not see how submitting plans to the Montgomery County Planning commission would hold up a housing project, and added that the new system would "make for a better community."

Two groups will meet in borough hall at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night to go over the specifications and discuss their possible effect on Pottstown building.

They will be the Planning and Zoning commission, headed by Horace Y. Seidel, and council's committee to function with that commission, with C. Raymond Eppheimer the chairman.

Borough Solicitor C. Edmund Wells will meet with them.

Members of Seidel's group are Charles I. Stout, Whitney A. Sanders, William Hillegas and Stanley I. Davenport Jr.

Serving on the council committee with Eppheimer are Ralph L. Weis, Paul I. Romig, Ellington B. Heck and Stanley Zawaski.

Cold, Cloudy Day Seen For Start of Weekend

Today will be a raw, cloudy day, terminated by showers late this afternoon and tonight, the weatherman said. The temperature won't top 60 degrees.

Tomorrow will be about the same temperature and also cloudy but the rain will stay in the mountains.

The temperature will be below normal until Wednesday. The weather bureau forecast a fair Monday and a rainy Tuesday and Wednesday.

Union sources said that no details of the negotiations could be disclosed until an agreement is reached. The negotiators decided to meet again at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Samuel Frost, international representative, and Morris Riger, assistant regional director of the TWUA, represented the union, with a 9-person plant committee headed by Ralph Fry.

Nelson M. Vaughan, vice president, secretary and treasurer of the firm, and Joseph Brandschain, consultant on labor relations, spoke for the company.

Occupation Plan Tendered For North Korea by U. S.

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 13 (AP)—The United States proposed today an occupation plan for Gen. MacArthur to govern North Korea until an all-Korean regime is established. The Americans also suggested to the U.N. commission on Korea that GIs be pulled out of occupation duty as quickly as possible, with other U.N. forces taking up that task; that war criminals be tried, and that there be no reprisals against North Korean soldiers and ordinary, rank-and-file Communists in the North.

Final Wonsan Days Saw Reds Slay 500

By WILLIAM JORDEN
WONSAN, Korea, Oct. 13 (AP)—North Korean Communist police killed at least 500 political prisoners in the last days of Red rule in Wonsan, some of those who escaped the slaughter said today. The prisoners were taken from Wonsan penitentiary just before South Korean troops liberated this east coast port. About 500 were shot in a cave on a hillside above the prison. Two hundred others were trucked to the seashore, shot and thrown into the surf. I went to Wonsan prison and found it had been taken over by 18 of its former inmates — the only known survivors of the mass murder four days ago. This is the story the survivors told: Last week there were between 800 and 900 prisoners in the thick-walled penitentiary. About 500 were political suspects; the rest were ordinary criminals.

ALGER HISS

Hiss Attorney Raps Conviction As Pack of Lies

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (AP)—Alger Hiss's attorney today branded Hiss's perjury conviction the result of a pack of psychopathic lies by Whitaker Chambers, former Communist spy ring courier. But the government retorted that the jury which convicted Hiss already had heard such arguments and decided it was he—not "Rumpelstiltskin"—who passed secret government papers to Chambers. (Rumpelstiltskin was a kind, helpful dwarf of German legend and fairy tale.) Hiss was indicted for perjury when he denied passing the papers to Chambers, and claimed he never saw Chambers after Jan. 1, 1937.

The arguments today were made in a three-hour session before a three-judge U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals. The Court withheld an immediate decision. Hiss, former high State department official and once a top adviser to President Roosevelt, had been free in $10,000 bail since his Federal court conviction last January.

The 46-year-old Hiss, seeking to escape a five year prison term, was in court with his wife, Priscilla, to hear the arguments. Defense Attorney Robert M. Benjamin said Hiss's conviction was based on "a figment of the psychopathic imagination" of Chambers.

He said the government had not tried to refute expert testimony that Chambers suffered from a mental ailment which caused constant lying.

The lawyer said the government failed to corroborate Chambers' accusations, and said documentary evidence could have been typed by Chambers himself on a typewriter once owned by Hiss.

Referring to Hiss's first trial which ended in a jury deadlock, Benjamin said the second trial jury was in a "peculiar position."

"These jurors knew," he said, "that the jurors in the first case who voted for acquittal had been subjected to harassment."

WCTU ADOPTS PLAN

DUBOIS, Oct. 13 (AP)—Delegates to the convention of the Pennsylvania Women's Christian Temperance union today adopted a resolution which calls on the United States to give its soldiers in Korea "pure water, fruit juice and milk" instead of beer.

MORE THAN A SCORE of police have filed retirement applications since a Brooklyn grand jury unearthed evidence a month ago that gamblers had paid police approximately $1,000,000 yearly in protection money.

All five of those who "put in their papers" today had been stationed at one time or another in Brooklyn, center of the gambling-graft probe.

They were Inspectors Nicholas A. Pisarra and Valentine W. Correll, Deputy Chief Inspector John W. Sutter, Deputy Inspector Edmund P. Hennelly and Assistant Chief Inspector Joseph W. Goldstein. Demoted was Inspector Christian Salasider.

Commissioner Murphy said Pisarra and Correll had been questioned earlier by Brooklyn District Attorney Miles P. McDonald.

Another inspector, Frederick A. Hofsaes, facing contempt of court proceedings, appeared before County Judge Samuel S. Leibowitz and was granted a continuance until Wednesday.

Nag's Pearl Diet Set at $4500 By Precise Jury

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13 (AP)—By a simple matter of arithmetic a jury decided today the horse that ate the necklace consumed a $4500 tidbit. The string of pearls involved belonged to Mrs. Elizabeth Gearhard of Philadelphia. And the horse, who did not figure in the trial, was owned by Mrs. Gearhard's sister.

But the pearls were insured by the Boston (Mass.) Insurance Co. for $5000 and Mrs. Gearhard sued the company when it failed to honor her claim for $4400.

Mrs. Gearhard said the horse ate 69 pearls, the biggest and most valuable on the strand. She got 262 back when she struggled with the horse and broke the necklace.

The jury pondered an hour and a half today and then brought back answers to three questions put to it in court:

1. Can the necklace be reconstructed in its original appearance and form. No, said the jury.
2. What is the value of the 262 pearls retrieved? Five hundred dollars figured the jury.
3. What was the actual value of the necklace before it was damaged by the horse. The jury penciled "$5000."

17 Workmen Are Wounded In Ambushed Gun Attack

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 13 (AP)—Two or more men lying in ambush cut loose with shotguns on 35 workmen enroute to a truck today.

The post-dawn blast left 17 men wounded, one seriously. Only the small size of the shot and the distance from the ambush prevented bloodier results.

Frank Smith, a former deputy sheriff riding in an escorting automobile, returned the fire. He said he counted two men in the ambush and there may have been more.

Police quickly began rounding up suspects. About 30 men were taken to headquarters for questioning, but no charges were filed immediately.

THIRTY-FIVE men were en route to the Reynolds and Manley Lumber company plant just southwest of the city when they were ambushed.

GERMAN REDS INVOKE STRICT ELECTION CURBS

Soviet Berlin Residents Banned From Eastern Zone Over the Weekend

BERLIN, Oct. 13 (AP)—Communist-ruled East Germany, closing the door to all opposition in carrying out its one-ticket election Sunday, tonight barred even residents of Soviet-occupied East Berlin from entering the Eastern zone over the weekend.

East Berlin is not participating in the election under a 1945 four-power agreement. The city is divided into four sectors, of which the Soviet sector is one. The other three divisions are the American, British and French sectors, constituting West Berlin.

In addition to imposing the travel ban, Russian-backed East Germany ordered the East Berliners to do a "volunteer" day's work on election day. This is expected to keep them busy and prevent any possible dissidents from entering the east zone to interfere with plans for a unanimous endorsement of the pro-Red, handpicked slate.

The extent of anti-Red feeling in East Berlin was indicated to some degree in the recent "ration card" plebiscite held by West Berlin officials. A total of 375,712 residents of the Eastern sector mailed their old ration cards to West Berlin in response to a call for them to show in this way their opposition to Communism. The latest population count (1946) listed 1,174,382 residents of East Berlin.

(IN WASHINGTON, the United States government denounced as a "sham" the Sunday elections in the Soviet zone. The State department said the balloting "will simply amount to a forced show of hands for the government in power" and will fail to indicate the true opinions of the voters.)

Across the sector boundary from West Berlin—to large audiences of East Berliners—Western-minded Germans have kept up a steady fire of ridicule of the Sunday election.

The West German republic's chancellor, Konrad Adenauer, lashed out at the Communists today, calling the election "a shocking rape of not only democratic right but of human dignity."

Calif. Swelters in 104; Florida Gets Blamed

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13 (AP)—What! Los Angeles today—the hottest October day on record. What's to blame? Florida, the man said.

Chief Forecaster A. K. Showalter of the Weather bureau said a six-day flow of Florida air, complete with thunderstorm, finally built up into today's sizzler.

He even called it a "Florida-style" sky pattern. Normally, airflow from west to east. But Oct. 8 it reversed, an extremely unusual state of affairs for this time of year, said Showalter.

Smelter Workers Union, an Independent, Called a Strike at the Plant Last Week When the Company Refused to Bargain on a Contract. About 150 Men Walked Out.

Hobart Manley, president of the company, said he refused to bargain "because the union was not properly accredited, having been expelled from its parent organization, the CIO, last February because of its Communist leanings."

Manley said about 40 percent of the strikers had returned to work. Union officials could not be reached immediately for comment.

It was the second incident of violence involving the lumber plant.

Situation Now Unscrambled; China Eggs Get Tariff Boost

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 (AP)—The State department announced today that higher tariffs will be applied to dried eggs from China under a proclamation issued by President Truman.

The change comes in the midst of a furor over shipments of the eggs from the Communist-dominated country. The shipments are reported piled up in a Seattle warehouse and an investigation of the imports has been demanded by Rep. Mitchell (D-Wash.).

Agriculture department sources had reported earlier in the week that a move was under way to raise the duty from the rate of 17 cents a pound provided in a 1947 trade treaty with China, to 27 cents.

The State department press office said the proclamation by President Truman ends certain tariff concessions granted China in the 1947 treaty.

The American action was taken because China withdrew from the agreement last May. The State department on Aug. 31 announced its intention to withdraw some of the concessions.

NOT ALL THE concessions in the treaty are being terminated now, the State department press office said. Other countries which have trade agreements with the United States have a substantial interest in some of the provisions of the agreement and want to consult with the American government before any changes are made.

Mitchell in his call for an investigation of the Chinese eggs shipments asked for an explanation of how such purchases square with the government program of egg purchases in this country to support prices.

The AFL Packinghouse, Poultry and Egg Workers union called the imports "a blow to American labor" and also wired protests to Washington.

Alex M. Bryce, Jr., of W. J. Byrnes & Co., the customs house brokers handling the Seattle shipments, declared there was nothing unusual about the shipments.

In Washington an Agriculture department official said about 3,000,000 pounds of dried eggs were imported from China by commercial users in the first seven months this year.

South Koreans on Way to Join U. S. Forces

From every section of South Korea came this long line of natives, eager to bring quick defeat to the Communists forces north of the 38th parallel. After reaching Seoul, the capital city, they are escorted by an American lieutenant to the nearest processing station for integration in the U. S. Seventh Division.

U. S. Visa Freeze Strikes Hard at Many Europeans

LONDON, Oct. 13 (AP)—It was Black Friday the 13th today for hundreds of Germans, Austrians and Italians caught in the United States visa freeze.

The State department order cancelling all visas issued by embassies abroad up to Oct. 12, and requiring their re-validation, hit thousands of Europeans headed for the United States.

For some of them, there were no serious consequences. U. S. consulates in a dozen major cities merely stamped their already visaged passports and they were free to sail or fly at once.

It was different for nationals of former enemy countries whose possible past connections with Communist, Nazi or Fascist organizations makes them targets of the new American anti-spy law.

IN NEW YORK CITY alone, immigration authorities said, 339 aliens have been detained at Ellis island since the new law became effective Sept. 23. Of that number, 169 still are there.

In Frankfurt, Germany, Pan American World Airways reported that 144 bookings to the United States had been canceled during the past six days in the confusion over interpretation of the new law.

Of these, 67 were emigrants, left almost penniless because they had sold their remaining belongings to get the money needed to start a new life in America. Most appealed to charitable organizations for help to tide them over.

Phila. Numbers Link Sent to National Gang

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13 (AP)—Senate crime probes have been told that Philadelphia's "substantial" numbers racket is operated in conjunction with a national syndicate. Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) said today.

Kefauver, opening hearings here as another step in a nationwide investigation by a special Senate subcommittee, said that in testimony this morning Harry Stromberg, of New York, known here as Nig Rosen, was named as the head of the Philadelphia operation.

The senator said this testimony was given by Assistant Superintendent of Police George F. Richardson, who added that Stromberg maintains close ties with key racketeers in other cities.

Among the people with whom Rosen has been closely associated, Richardson told the committee, are Frank Costello and Meyer Lansky of New York, Herman Taylor, Philadelphia, and Jimmy La Fontaine, of Maryland.

ROSEN AND WILLIE Weisberg, described by Richardson as Rosen's lieutenant, arrived at the committee's headquarters shortly before adjournment in answer to subpoenas.

A committee spokesman said Rosen admitted he had "wined and dined" police officials in Philadelphia but he refused to name them.

Rosen also admitted knowing top figures in the numbers and gambling rackets but would not admit being connected with the rackets himself, the spokesman said.

In view of Rosen's refusal to answer a number of other questions the spokesman said the possibility of punitive action being taken against Rosen is being considered.

With Rosen when he entered the committee room was his counsel, William A. Gray.

French Request U. S. For Over 3 Billions To Boost Military

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 (AP)—France was reported to have asked the United States today to provide a total of $3,170,000,000 in military aid for the French armed forces during 1951.

American officials said France was told the request is too big but that some money will be allocated almost immediately.

The French also were given formal assurances that the United States is making every effort to speed the delivery of fighting equipment to Indo-China, where French forces are striving to hold off advancing Communists.

Secretary of Defense Marshall gave these latter assurances in conferences with two French cabinet officers, Defense Minister Jules Moch and Finance Minister Maurice Pate.

Officials said Moch made the $3,170,000,000 request in a meeting with Marshall, Secretary of State Acheson and Treasury Secretary Snyder.

MOCH SUGGESTED that the $3,170,000,000 be allocated as follows:

1. About $2,100,000,000 in finished American military equipment such as guns, tanks and planes which would be sent to France.
2. About $300,000,000 worth of additional military supplies to be allocated to French troops in Indo-China.
3. About $770,000,000 in direct dollar assistance to the French treasury to help it withstand the impact of a stepped up rearmament program.

Officials who attended the meeting at the State department said Moch also presented plans for boosting France's present armed strength in Europe from Ten to 20 divisions at the end of 1953 with the hope this might rise to "8 divisions."

Moch proposed, it was said, that three new divisions be added to the seven divisions France now has mobilized at home and in Western Germany.

Airliner on Check Flight Crashes; 5 Are Killed

ALMELUND, Minn., Oct. 13 (AP)—A Northwest airlines Martin passenger liner on a routine personnel check flight crashed on the outskirts of Almelund today, killing five of the six persons aboard.

Northwest airlines said passengers on the ship were a check-pilot, an airline captain being given a routine six-month check, and four men connected with the Civil Aeronautics administration.

The airlines said the check pilot killed was Raymond Francis Renter, 34, Minneapolis, Minn. The captain was John R. Galt, 37, St. Paul.

Obituaries

BENJAMIN KANTNER, 84, who lived for the past 20 years at the home of a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Gerhart, 337 JEFFERSON AVENUE, died Thursday in Pottstown hospital.

In ill health for the past week, he was admitted to the hospital a week ago, suffering from an asthmatic condition that required him to be placed in an oxygen tent.

Mr. Kantner was born in Shenandoah, Schuylkill county, but spent most of his younger life in nearby St. Clair. He was a miner.

His wife, Margaret, died 30 years ago. He had been a member of St. Clair Reformed church and was a member of Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company.

Surviving are a son, Benjamin, Reading; three daughters, Margaret, wife of Harvey Gerhart; Maude, wife of Alphonse Gerhart, 337 King street, and Mrs. Matilda Jenkins, 793 Willow street; 10 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 1:30 p. m. from a funeral home on Second street, St. Clair. Interment will be made in Odd Fellows' cemetery, St. Clair.

FRANK CAUTERUCCI, 61, ELVERSON RD 1, factory clothes presser, died yesterday morning at 2 o'clock at Coatesville hospital. He had been ill for a month.

A native of Valencia, Spain, Mr. Cauterucci came to this country 30 years ago and settled in New York city where he became a clothes presser.

Three years ago he came to Elverson to work as a presser for the Langens clothing factory there.

A lifelong bachelor and the last member of his immediate family, he leaves no survivors. His parents were the late Angelo and Angela (Daddino) Cauterucci.

Funeral services will be held Monday morning at 8:15 o'clock from an Elverson funeral home. Requiem high mass will be celebrated at 9 o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Downingtown, of which he was a member. Interment will be in St. Joseph's Catholic cemetery, Downingtown.

WILLIAM C. PATTERSON, 89, NEW CASTLE, DEL., father of Victor P. Patterson, former general secretary of the Pottstown YMCA, died Thursday night at his home.

He was a contractor and builder and a leader of the Presbyterian church in Delaware.

Surviving are three sons, Dale, New York City; Clarence, Baltimore, and Victor F., of 911 North Franklin street, now working in Hot Springs, Ark.; five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete last night.

Funeral services for W. HOWARD MOYER, husband of the late Ella (Steinmetz) Moyer, of 5 BEECH STREET, were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from a funeral home at 711 North Franklin street.

Rev. William C. Leopold, pastor of St. James Lutheran church, Limerick, officiated. Interment was in the St. James cemetery.

Bearers were Fred and Wayne Steinmetz, John Gibson, William Prommer, Emmert Hartman and Harold Scheller.

DOCTORS DRAFT —

If any, of Pottstown's physicians would be affected. Later, draft calls for physicians up to age 50 without military service and veterans might affect the doctors in the community, they said.

Dr. Elicker estimated two-thirds of all the physicians in the area fall in the proper age classification.

Calls for these latter two categories have not been made, but all physicians must be registered before Jan. 16, 1951. It is possible afterwards that other physicians without military service will be called before some of their younger, but war veteran, colleagues.

Among the younger men who could qualify as draft eligibles are Drs. Wallace Davidson, Joseph T. Zukoski and Warren J. Brown. All have had military service and are in a reserve category to be automatically eliminated.

All physicians in the reserves are eligible for calls from their respective branches of service. One physician, Dr. Raymond Reinhold, a resident at the Pottstown hospital, was recalled to the Navy recently.

A SIMILAR situation exists among Pottstown dentists. Those who received training from the government or were deferred for training, like Dr. James A. Hallman and Dr. Walter W. Schell, served in the armed forces later and are now in the reserve.

Another dentist, Dr. Samuel C. Smith, already has received a call from the U. S. Navy. He had been a member of the reserves.

No optometrists, osteopaths or veterinarians are believed to be eligible for the first draft call. Optometrists in the younger age groups are in the reserve or, in the case of Dr. Harold Baumann, are affiliated with the National guard.

TRAFFIC SIGNALS —

selected for his second experiment a time close to 10 p. m.

Traffic was light, there was no double parking or attempts by drivers to find parking space, there was no unloading or commercial vehicles, no weddings, no funerals, no jaywalking, no left-hand "turners" tying up the traffic behind them, no hand-operated signals being manipulated, no buses easing out into the line of travel, and no snorting, hulks or over-the-road trucks blocking the way.

Admittedly, the conditions were ideal; the average driver is seldom confronted with them all at once. It was test tube experimentation, pure and simple.

The reporter was able to travel the entire 15 blocks on High street from Manatwamy to Moser road averaging three stops in both directions.

BUT—THERE'S a trick to it: Under the most ideal of conditions, you cannot drive more than 31 miles per hour or less than 28. Here's what the experiments showed.

Starting in the East End, with the Rosedale traffic light 10 seconds green, the reporter went all the way to High and Hanover before being stopped by a red light.

His speed was constant, there was no effort made to accelerate above 30 miles per hour, but the momentum carried him to 31 on the downgrade between Keim and Madison streets.

At Evans street, the light turned yellow as the car went through the intersection.

At Hanover street, the light turned to red while the driver was still 150 feet away. He was stopped again at York, but the light was green beyond, at Manatwamy.

At that speed, the trickiest intersections are at Madison and at Evans streets.

Approaching Madison street from the east, the motorist has a red light, but dropping to 28 miles per hour a reasonable distance from it gets him through safely.

The Evans street light is green on the approach and requires a slight increase in speed to get the car by without being stopped or going through on yellow.

SINCE CHARLOTTE street south to High and then east on High is a much-used route, the reporter made a test run in that direction.

Moving from a stop with the turn of the green on Charlotte, the driver went as far as Keim street without being required to halt. But, he was stopped again at Price street and at Rosedale drive. The constant speed again was from 28 to 30 miles per hour.

On the full west-east run on High from Manatwamy, passing the light on green, the reporter went to Charlotte before catching the red signal. He caught it again at Evans, sailed on through Franklin, and came up short at Washington.

From there to Price it was steady going, but the Price street "catch all" held him up. His last stop was for Rosedale.

This—of course—was under the most ideal circumstances. Traffic which had zoomed by him at probably 40 to 50 miles per hour ground to a stop for lights ahead. But the reporter, holding his constant speed caught lights as they changed to green, passed the more urgent motorists and eventually arrived at the same destination in about the same time.

THE BOROUGH electrician in his earlier discussion with the reporter, added a new word to the conversation. Along with "synchronization," he spoke of "equalization."

This, he explained, means that the lights are set so as to get traffic in both directions through town in an equal amount of time, favoring neither east nor west bound vehicles.

"If traffic were one way on High street," Price asserted, "it would be no problem to get the lights. But it isn't. So we try to equalize them."

Asked what was the biggest obstacle in trying to synchronize the traffic signals, Price replied: "Speed."

In addition to the desire of most drivers to get to their destination in the fastest possible time along the straight-aways, the distances between the blocks and the lights themselves are uneven, the electrician pointed out.

A system working to the benefit of east bound vehicles, for example, would not work for west-bound travel because the approach distances to the same lights for the two lines of traffic are different, he said.

PRICE USED Philadelphia's evenly-spaced Broad street intersections as an example where traffic in both directions can be regulated by synchronized lights.

"Billy Penn knew what he was doing when he laid out the city," the electrician commented dryly.

Even when the lights of Pottstown are set to "equalize" traffic, Price went on, things can happen to upset the adjustment.

Among these is lightning, which can throw the electric motor of the signal out of adjustment and out of time with the other lights along the street.

Price, who spends a great deal of his time checking the lights, wouldn't mind one bit if their control could be regulated from a central point.

In addition to correcting their adjustment, he said, they could be controlled simultaneously to halt all traffic in the event of fire or other emergency which would be affected by traffic.

from 4 or 5 o'clock in the morning until mid-afternoon.

Mrs. Smith retired 25 years ago. Miss Elmerbrink continued with the growing company, moving with it to 307 High street, 268 King street and finally to its present location at 301 Water street.

DURING MOST of her career with the pie company, Miss Elmerbrink was forelady in the finishing department. In recent years, at her request, she had been working on assembly.

Miss Elmerbrink was born in Pottstown. Her father, Harry F. Elmerbrink, who died Nov. 8, 1936, at the age of 84, manufactured cigars at his home at 341 King street, was chief of records for the Sanatoga Tribe of Red Men for 37 years, at one time was president of Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company and a member of the health board.

She has lived at the Walnut street home, which she owns, for the past 17 years. She has a sister, Emma, who has been with the same family—first S. R. Longacre, Pottstown paperhanger, and now his son, Earl, Washington, D. C.—for the past

Old Horse Slays Lost In Area for 24 Hours

A 28-year-old horse had stamina enough left to stay lost for 24 hours in Douglassville RD 1 before it returned home yesterday.

The horse is owned by Mrs. Joseph Minotto, who lives near the intersection of Route 422 and Squirrel Hollow road. It disappeared at 4 p. m. Thursday and returned late yesterday afternoon.

The horse apparently had been roaming on the neighboring farm of Thomas Kressly. The Kresslys did not see "Doll," the horse, they told Mrs. Minotto, but they saw evidence.

CREDIT CURBS —

ing car prices, the answer may be almost anything.

Furniture and home appliance dealers tended to think the new curbs would be a "healthy thing" for business—less sales but less out on a limb.

Placing the regulations on articles costing $50 and up will be the toughest part of the new code, Leon Levitz of Levitz Furniture company, believed.

"We sell most of our goods in that price bracket. I think it will have a real effect," he said.

The hardships will come for families in the lower income brackets, he said. Particularly squeezed, he believed, will be prospective television set buyers.

"Practically the only potential television buyers left are the people in the low income group," he said.

The government's move will check price increases and inflation and generally help both consumer and merchant, however, he believed.

MOST FURNITURE dealers, including Levitz, believed the new controls would have little or no effect on furniture sales. It will hold back some of the no-down-payment buyers, but this group is a small minority anyway.

Catherine E. Endy, manager of the Pottstown Furniture Factory, remembered when war-time controls, stiffer than present ones, were in effect. "It worked beautifully," she said.

"I think it's a good thing. Most people are working now. And if they buy a $100 purchase and you ask for $15 instead of $10, I think they can come up with another five dollar bill," she said.

Because of the short deadline, appliance dealers thought there would be less of a stampede to buy than just before the past month's controls went on.

Some furniture dealers conceded that they would not feel the new curbs at all since they have always had rules as strict, or stricter, in effect.

61 years.

"They stay put, these Elmerbrinks," Smith asserted with a smile.

THE TESTIMONIAL dinner will be held at Brookside Country club at 7 p. m. There will be a steak dinner, champagne cocktail, reminiscences and a brief acknowledgment from Miss Annie.

Guests will include executives of the York and Philadelphia plants of the company.

From the Pottstown plant, there will be Smith, Struckmann; Raymond A. Bittling, 900 North Hill boulevard, plant manager; Amandes Hoffman, 123 King street, assistant manager; Walter A. Lohmar, Kenilworth, controller; Carl Martin, Douglassville RD 1, assistant production superintendent; James H. Moyer, Souderton, sales manager.

Dave Morgan, 470 Spruce street, and Mrs. Evelyn Anderson, of the shop committee, Bakery and Confectionery Workers (AF of L); Tony Mosera, Pottstown RD 3, shop steward; Gerald Brown, maintenance engineer; Alvin Weaver, Jopanna, production statistical clerk. The wives or husbands of these plant workers and officers also will attend.

the coast against light resistance. They had powerful support from U. S. Air Force and Navy fighter-bombers.

INTELLIGENCE officers predicted the South Koreans would have fairly easy going until they reached the already heavily bombed Hungnam-Hamhung industrial complex.

Hungnam had one of the largest ammunition depots in the world. Plants in Hamhung once turned out nitric acid for the Red war machine. Both have been heavily bombed.

The South Koreans advancing up the east coast were still some 120 miles south of the strip blasted heavily by the Allied Naval force headed by the battleship Missouri.

The "Mighty Mo" lobbed 400 tons of shells into Chongjin Thursday in less than one hour. A Navy summary said afterward that three basic facilities in that iron and steel port had been wiped out.

The big battlewagon swung 100 miles south Friday and slammed its one-ton shells from 16-inch guns into the rail and highway town of Tanchon.

ACCOMPANYING allied cruisers shelled Chongjin, Songjin, and nearby Sangpo.

Most of the fighting front developments were overshadowed by the coming conference between President Truman and General MacArthur.

The President had reached Honolulu on his flight westward to talk with the United Nations commander.

General MacArthur took off from Tokyo aboard his new plane "Scap" for the island of Wake, where it was disclosed officially the conference will be held.

Before MacArthur prepared take off, the United States agreed in the United Nations that MacArthur's unified command should govern North Korea until the U. N. commission and the Koreans themselves can settle the future of the area.

Wake. MacArthur chose Wake because it was nearer the Korean war theater.

Admiral Arthur W. Radford, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, at the same time revealed extraordinary measures taken to safeguard the President on his flight from Honolulu to Wake.

A Navy air-sea patrol which was flown from California to Hawaii to protect the President's route of flight will be extended west to Wake Island.

Two fast destroyer-escorts, the Epperson and the Philip, have been stationed between Pearl Harbor and Wake. Two destroyer minesweepers, the Thompson and Carmick, are guarding the approaches to the little atoll.

Wake Island was first blazed into America's memory by a gallant Marine garrison which withstood for 14 days an overwhelming attack by Japanese invasion forces at the start of World War II. The garrison capitulated Dec. 24, 1941.

There was no indication of the agenda to be followed in the conference between the President and the United Nations military commander.

GENERAL MACARTHUR took only two advisers with him, John J. Muccio, U. S. ambassador to Korea, and Brig. Gen. Courtney Whitney, head of MacArthur's occupation government section in Japan.

Aides said MacArthur considered he had been ordered to report to his commander-in-chief and advisers therefore were unnecessary.

The general will carry detailed information on subjects ranging from the Korean military campaign to economic statistics about Japan and all of East Asia.

General MacArthur's aides expected talks would cover the full range of matters comprising American foreign policy in the Far East in the less than eight hours Mr. Truman and the general will have together.

In a speech at Pearl Harbor at noon, the President made no mention of the matters to be discussed but talked of the problems of world peace.

He said he would make the United States position clear in forthcoming speeches in San Francisco and before the United Nations General assembly.

Some of his remarks appeared directed at congressional opponents who, he said, he fears may block increased spending for defense once peace is restored in Korea.

WORLD PEACE cannot be maintained with "sticks and stones," the President said. He said he hoped "I can drive this message home to the Congress and the people in the United States."

He said if he had been able to drive home the defense needs of the nation, in 1948, the world "would not be threatened as it is today."

Mr. Truman took occasion to reiterate his support of statehood for both Hawaii and Alaska. He described them as key positions for national defense.

He also paid tribute to the morale of veterans wounded in Korea whom he visited in California last night.

The first meeting of the 70-year-old general and the 66-year-old President will be limited to a few hours. Mr. Truman is scheduled to take off westward shortly before

Teslimony Completed On Perkiomen Dam Case at Courthouse

By Staff Correspondent
NORRISTOWN, Oct. 13 (AP)—All testimony for and against the proposal of the Philadelphia Suburban Water company to construct a large dam in the Upper Perkiomen creek near Green Lane, was completed this afternoon before the State Water and Power Resources board, at a hearing in the courthouse.

The plan of the Suburban Water company in asking the board for the permit to construct the dam and reservoir was submitted to the board last February and the company presented testimony in support of its application at a hearing in Harrisburg on May 10.

Most of the testimony was presented by expert witnesses, including W. H. Corddry, of Harrisburg, and Frederick H. Dechant, of Philadelphia, both engineers.

At today's session, the water company's proposal was attacked as unnecessary at this time by Mrs. Mary B. Rogers, who represented the Perkiomen Valley Women's club.

H. S. Embury, of H. S. Embury and Sons, Perkiomenville, said his saw mill is wholly dependent on the creek for power.

Elmer F. Clemmer, Spring

Mount grist mill operator, said his mill is 100 percent dependent on the creek for power.

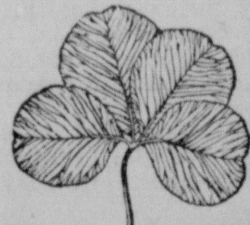

After hearing the testimony, members of the Resources board ordered it transcribed and urged attorneys to file briefs within the next 20 days. The record of the hearing will then be studied and subsequently a ruling will be handed down from Harrisburg.

Anniversary Rites Opened at St. Peters

A musical program by the Ambassadors Gospel team of Philadelphia opened the special services marking the 36th anniversary of St. Peter's Baptist church Thursday night. Sam Appel, a member of the gospel team, gave the principal talk. He took the place of the Rev. John Crouthamel Jr., of the Fleischmann Memorial Baptist church, Philadelphia, who was detained on business. The Rev. Crouthamel spoke at the evening services in the church last night.

Sermons by the Rev. Henry Laube, of the Southern Baptist convention, at the morning services, and by the Rev. M. M. Smith, of the Central Union Baptist association, in the afternoon will climax the anniversary celebration Sunday.

An invitation to the public to attend the services has been extended by the Rev. John W. Sandford, pastor.

Attempts are being made to extract uranium from gold mine waste in South Africa.

ACCURATE SEEDING AT UNIFORM DEPTH

WITH MM Moline Monitor DOUBLE-RUN DRILLS

MM double run feeds will handle every variety of seed in even, continuous streams without bunching or skipping. Clogging is cut to a minimum even when dirty or trashy seed is used. Owners of MM Double-Run Feed Drills report that they get larger and healthier yields because Moline-Monitor Drills plant the seed accurately and properly. Tube holders are arranged so that operator can see the seed being delivered to the spouts at all times.

SINGLE OR DOUBLE DISC OPENER HELPS ASSURE BETTER YIELDS

MM disc openers cut through trash and do a better job of uniformly covering the seed. MM disc bearings are famous for their long life and light running. MM delivery of the seed ahead of the disc bearing assures better covering. These features make MM Double-Run Drills the preferred drills for more uniform seeding.

Even Working's Fun... WITH A FARMALL CUB!

A warm spring day and you ride out to the field in your brand-new Farmall Cub tractor... flip a tiny lever with your finger... and down goes the plow! A big, shiny ribbon of soil rolls over... yessir, even working's fun with a Farmall Cub!

A fellow east of town said to me, "My kids are always scrapping about who's going to drive the Farmall Cub. How I wish we'd had machines like that when I was a kid. My poor feet sure took a beating!"

Yes, folks, that's what a lot of people are saying since they bought their Farmall Cub... and they know that any time parts or service are needed, I'm always here.

DEARBORN-WOOD BROS. CORN PICKER

AMERICA'S FAVORITE

• THE RESULT OF 50 YEARS of Wood Bros. experience, this picker is America's favorite. FAST; corn moves through freely. SAVES LOSSES by lifting downed corn, fewer dropped ears, less shelling. HUSKS THOROUGHLY, delivers trash-free undamaged ears. PULLS EASILY; can be used with any two-row tractor with A.S.A.E. standard P.T.O. and hitch. And ECONOMICAL!

Big Gentle-Action Husking Bed

13 1/4" x 37 1/2" with six rolls. No matter how many rows a picker is made for, a clogged husking bed can slow you down. Get this big husking bed.

Flexible Floating Points with 3 Gathering Chains

Picker can be raised, lowered and points tilted up or down. As it is a one-row picker, points can always be kept centered on row, even in rows as narrow as 26".

Exclusive Rotary Snapping Bar

Snaps any ears missed by the snapping rolls. Also handles heavy trash that might clog. Only Dearborn-Wood Bros. has it!

Frank E. Bader Dies In Phoenixville at 79

PHOENIXVILLE, Oct. 13 (AP)—Seventy-nine-year-old Frank E. Bader, credit manager of the Phoenixville Daily Republican, died today.

Bader, who for 51 years ran a shoe store in Phoenixville, also was a director of the Daily Republican.

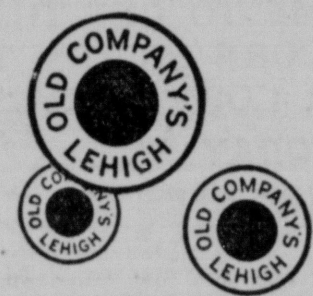

He was a graduate of the Peirce Business college in Philadelphia and was an organizer and director of the Phoenixville Trust company and of the Retail Merchants association.

Bader also conducted a real estate business in Phoenixville.

Driver's 'Friends' Prove To Be Pals of Grandson

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13 (AP)—John M. Kirst figured he had a lot of friends. For some 14 blocks, as he drove his car, they were waving to him and shouting.

Finally a laundry truck driver flagged him down. Then Kirst found, hanging desperately onto the front bumper, his two-year-old grandson, Randall. The boy was unhurt.

GUARANTEE of top coal quality

Whenever you see coal with these little red-and-blue bullseyes mixed in with it, you can be absolutely sure it is Old Company's Lehigh premium anthracite. ### To Address Rally

REV. MYRDDIN LEWIS

Methodists to Hear British Lecturer at Rally Day Services

The Rev. Myrddin Lewis, Birmingham, England, will be guest speaker at the annual Rally Day service of Spring City Methodist Sunday school tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

An outstanding speaker and Bible conference lecturer, the Rev. Lewis at one time was a renowned lyric tenor and sang before the present King and Queen of England.

Music for the service will be provided by the Melody Maids, Pottstown, under direction of Mrs. Peggy Reid Lamb, known as one of the best trained choruses in this area.

The old-fashioned hymn sing will be in charge of the Rev. David Allen, Trenton, N. J., pastor of a large Baptist church of that city and well known for his activities among youth. The public was invited to attend.

The annual Spring City Methodist rally has been conducted for the past 35 years or more, with large crowds returning each year.

Volume of Scrap Rubber Rises From U. S. to Reds

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13 (AP)—Scrap rubber is moving in increasing volume through San Francisco to Communist China.

Reports to the U. S. Department of Commerce showed today that 2000 tons moved through the port in September. This was 20 times July's volume, and equalled the total for all of last year.

A consignment of 300 tons of rubber scrap was being assembled here for loading Monday on the Norwegian freighter Lisholt. It is destined for Taku bar and Tsingtao.

Burns Are Fatal to Boy Pinned Beneath Tractor

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 13 (AP)—Four-year-old Jimmie Allen Erhart climbed on his dad's tractor on a farm near here late yesterday and started it.

The tractor ran onto a wood pile and overturned, pinning Jimmie by a foot. Gasoline from the tractor ignited and Jimmie was burned seriously. He died in a hospital here two hours later.

The father, Lester Erhart, was burned painfully trying to rescue his tiny son.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the period of October 16 to 22 has been proclaimed by His Excellency, James H. Duff, Governor of our Commonwealth, as "PENNSYLVANIA WEEK;" and

WHEREAS, the observance of "PENNSYLVANIA WEEK" has been conceived as an occasion for citizens of our Commonwealth to acquaint themselves more fully with the resources, development, history, and potentialities of their home State and their home community; and

WHEREAS, this objective is as important to the community as to the State, because continued progress and fulfillment of the great opportunities surrounding us depend upon the thorough understanding by our citizens of the resources and achievements we now have in our own locality and how they best can be used to promote the common welfare and prosperity in the years ahead; and

WHEREAS, we in Pottstown will benefit directly from the observance of "PENNSYLVANIA WEEK" to the extent to which we join wholeheartedly in this vital movement to re-emphasize to our citizens the infinite variety of Pennsylvania's vast resources and the special advantages of our community; and

WHEREAS, full employment for our citizens of today and for future generations at plants, factories, and farms in or near the community we have chosen as our home can be attained only by our constant alertness to make full use of these resources and special advantages for production and commerce;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William A. Griffith, Burgess of the Borough of Pottstown, do hereby urge community-wide observance of "PENNSYLVANIA WEEK" by all of our citizens and by all representative local organizations; and

FURTHERMORE, I request that "Know Your State" and "Know Your Community" programs and other appropriate exercises and special activities be held in the schools, and by business, civic, fraternal, patriotic, and religious organizations within the Borough of Pottstown during the period of October 16 to 22.

Done this 13th Day of October 1950, at the office of the Burgess, in witness whereof I hereunto set my signature.

Hard Times Can't Smudge Their Happiness; 50th Anniversary Observed by Fetterers'

By MARY JANE FEGELY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

A couple who have weathered some of life's hardest storms together and who are now in poor health, could still laugh last night—the night of their 50th wedding anniversary—and made no attempt to hide the love light still shining in their eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fetterer, of the Eastern Steel apartments, West High street, gave their secret to a happy marriage to young couples, whom they feel are a bit impetuous today. It goes like this:

"Work together for big things and little things alike. Don't ever be jealous of one another, and when you take opposite sides on an issue, compromise."

"I'm proud to say I love my wife just as much today as I did the day I married her," Mr. Fetterer said. "We've had a happy life together, and we'd be lost without each other."

THE COUPLE met at a country dance in 1899.

The date was December 24. I remember it well," Mr. Fetterer smiled.

At the time Mrs. Fetterer was Miss Ada Weiser, of Cressona, Schuylkill county. She had been born and reared on a farm with her grandparents. Mr. Fetterer was 22 years old and also lived in Cressona. He was working in the car shop of the Reading Railroad company in Schuylkill Haven at the time of their marriage ten months later.

The were married in St. Mark's Reformed parsonage, Cressona, by the Rev. C. E. Bartholomew, who was later pastor of the St. Paul's Reformed church in Pottstown. "Here, I'll show you our marriage license," volunteered Mr. Fetterer as he brought forth an old fashioned marriage license—much larger than the ones issued now—and framed.

THEY HAVE lived in Pottstown or area since 1929. Mr. Fetterer recalled how he started work with the railroad company in 1896 as a water boy, earning 50 cents a day. From there he obtained a job in the car shop for 11 cents an hour, and sometimes worked as many as 90 hours a week.

Later, he became a brakeman, made 14 cents an hour and worked in that capacity till he stayed up to passenger brakeman. He held that job until his retirement in August of 1939, when he was stricken with a heart attack.

After living in various sections of Pottstown, the couple have decided that their favorite spot is where they are located now.

The reason? It's a sentimental one. The fact that his many hours of hard labor on the railroad caused his broken health, has not severed Mr. Fetterer's love for the railroad and the people who work on it. In his present home, he can hear the trains go by, and is comforted in knowing that he is still remembered by the men when they blow the whistle as they pass his home night and day.

"I CAN lie in my bed at night, and when they blow the whistle, all of the good memories come back to me—if I could, I'd go back to work," he said wistfully.

He remained on the company roster till 1949, in the hopes that he could go back, but on the advice of his doctors, finally applied for his pension.

Mrs. Fetterer's reason for liking Pottstown stems from the friendliness shown by a South Pottstown family, Squire and Mrs. Ralph W. Ralston, when her husband was deathly ill around the year 1936.

"I thought my husband was going to die, and when our neighbors heard about it, the squire came over and told me that I and my children could live with them if we had no place else to go. During my husband's convalescence, they gave us coal to keep the house warm and each morning Squire Ralston would sit with Mr. Fetterer," she recalled.

"WHEN YOU know you have friends like that, you don't want to leave a town for the coal regions."

Mr. Fetterer realizes, too, the value of the many friends he has made in Pottstown. Yesterday their baker surprised them with a huge white and gold wedding anniversary cake, and, they reported, he never forgets them on other special days such as Mother's and Father's Day.

Because Mrs. Fetterer isn't permitted to leave her home, her husband does all of the marketing. It's always a big thrill for him when he steps outside their home and hears the neighbors and passing motorists who know him, call out the days greeting.

Known as "Pop" Fetterer, he chuckled when he remembers how a workman on one of the new diesel engines greeted him when the train stopped near his home.

"The man just looked at me and yelled, 'My gosh, Pop, I thought you died long ago!' Boy, I sure would like to be working on one of those new engines," he concluded.

AN ILLNESS stemming from an old back injury keeps Mrs. Fetterer on the almost inactive list. To take up some of her time, she crochets, besides doing cooking and baking.

All of the housework is done by Mr. Fetterer, who doesn't mind one bit. Great ones for staying at home, the Fetterers spent their first holiday away last Christmas Day when they had their dinner at the home of their daughter in Philadelphia.

Tomorrow they expect to have a family dinner in their home. They have three children: Lauretta, wife of John Reilly, Philadelphia; Travis, Chester county; and William, Reading. Their family is further swelled by 11 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mrs. Weimer Column Guest Cook Today; Gives Tasty, Quick Get-Together Recipe

By GRANNY HIGGINS

In every woman's mind there is the thought of the kitchen be she a business girl or a professional mate. She may spend her days draping millinery or taking pulse beats but somehow she manages to know how to rustle up a meal too.

Perhaps the little woman of the

WCTU Meeting Held In Searles Church; Rev. Hoover Speaks

The Pottstown Woman's Christian Temperance Union held a meeting in Searles Memorial Methodist church, Thursday at 2 p. m., with a good attendance.

Mrs. Joseph Conway assisted by Miss Mary Eschbach, pianist, was in charge of the worship service. The theme was, "The Light of Fellowship." Mrs. Elsie Walter was the soloist and Mrs. Walter Myers offered a prayer.

A white ribbon recruit service was conducted by president Miss Laura R. Ecker, and Thomas Richard Moyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moyer, became a recruit member.

The president presided at the business meeting and reports were given by the following: Miss Eschbach, recording secretary; Miss Gertrude B. Ecker, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. W. F. Maloney, treasurer.

Miss Marjorie Keim, leader of the Loyal Temperance League, gave a report on the reorganization of the group. She announced that meetings will be held every Monday night, from 4 to 5:30 o'clock in her home, 602 High street.

Posters campaigning for temperance will be purchased for distribution.

A reading, "The White Ribbon Dollar," was given by Mrs. Maloney and Mrs. Anna Nagle read "What Are Commitments."

The Rev. Maurice Hoover, pastor of the host church, spoke on "Present Day Evils of Alcohol." He stated that the reasons for the use of alcohol are relaxation, money making, release from tension and the social form.

Mrs. Annie Richards reported on current events and stated that the WCTU in Pennsylvania has secured 174 new members during the past year.

Two new members were welcomed into the union. They were Mrs. Allen Yohn and Miss Helen Guss.

The roll call meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 9, at 2 p. m. in the Trinity Evangelical Congregational church.

The meeting closed with the Aaronic benediction.

First FHA Meeting Held; New Officers Elected

The Brandywine council of the Future Homemakers of America, Chester county, held its first meeting of the year at the Warwick High school recently.

President, Miss LaVerne McCully, of Warwick, presided and the group recited the FHA creed.

The following officers were elected: Miss Evelyn Thompson, count adviser, Downingtown; Miss Nancy Mercer, Downingtown; secretary, Miss Gladys Silknitter, Warwick; treasurer, Miss Doris Pinkerton, Cochranville; publicity, Miss Doris Wood, Avon Grove, historian.

The meeting of the Region council will be held at East Greenville, Oct. 21. All FHA chapters of this region are invited to attend.

Plans are being made for a county FHA day, to be held in the Spring.

business world likes to get behind the stove because she feels that only the cooking secret she has discovered will make the family meal a success.

Whatever the reason, woman just can't resist getting her fingers into the pie, the way Mrs. Edward Weimer, 306 Evans street, does.

Because she spends a good part of her day teaching the rudiments of reading, writing and what goes with it to Second graders at the Wyndcroft school, Mrs. Weimer finds that a quick meat pie is just the recipe for the busy woman.

Here is a dish that can be put together in no time at all and will also absorb your left overs. You can even get an advance start by par boiling celery, carrots and potatoes. Then store them in the refrigerator for next day use. The dough too is something that can be prepared beforehand.

IF YOU'RE looking for a time saver, delicious as it is quick, here's a neighbor's recipe, just the way mother use to make it, from Mrs. Weimer's kitchen.

Meat Pie

1 cup cubed carrots
1 cup cubed potatoes
1 onion, diced
2 stalks celery
1/4 teaspoon of salt
1 1/2 cups of cubed cooked meat of your choice meat gravy

Pie Crust

1 cup flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup shortening
2 1/2 to 3 tablespoons cold water
Prepare pastry first. Cook carrots, celery and potatoes in salt water until almost tender. Drain. Add some of the cooking liquid to the gravy, if needed, to make about 1 1/2 cups of liquid.

Mix vegetables, meat and seasonings with gravy. Heat thoroughly and pour into a buttered baking dish. Cover dish with pie crust and slit crust in several places. Bake pie in hot oven 425 F about 40 minutes, or depending on size of dish and thickness of crust. Makes 6 servings.

Joash Chest Program Planned by Members Of Women's Group

The annual Joash Chest program of First Presbyterian church, sponsored by the Women's association of the church, will take place in the assembly room Thursday night, Oct. 19, at 8 o'clock.

General chairman for the evening is Mrs. Christian S. Stouffer. Mrs. A. Burtis Hallock is association president, and the hostess circle will be the Guild, Mrs. Ethelbert P. Barnard, president.

The Rev. John B. Frantz, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, will sing several selections. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Earl S. Yohn, organist at the Presbyterian church.

Speaker will be Captain Maurice Marlow Witherspoon, Presbyterian chaplain. Called by a well-known writer and commentator "one of the Navy's most popular chaplains," noted for his imaginative, action-packed programs, Captain Witherspoon will speak on the theme: "Can Americans Meet the Red Challenge?"

The speaker was made a Doctor of Divinity by his Alma Mater, Washington and Jefferson college, holder of the Bronze Star Medal, awarded for his morale building work in the Aleutian chain during the early part of the war. Captain Witherspoon has been decorated often for his betterment of human relations.

He was given the Presidential Medal of Merit by Nicaragua, was recommended for the DSM by the Commanding General of Marines for improving relations, and was cited for his charities by the Archbishop.

Members of the church will bring in their free-will money gifts for the chest, as was done in Old Testament times, during the reign of King Josiah.

Program chairman is Mrs. Lucile Wade Williams. Refreshments will be served following the program.

"She can bake a meat pie Billy boy, quick as . . ." Mrs. Edward Weimer (above) prepares to roll the dough that will cover the dish of her meat pie. This is a good recipe for the business woman since many advance preparations can be made before actually putting the pie together.

2 Girl Scout Troops Entertain Members Of Coventry Group

Members of the East Coventry Parent Teachers association were entertained at their Thursday night meeting by the Girl Scout Troops 100 and 76.

The program opened with the scouts singing "The Old Rugged Cross" accompanied by Patsy Miller at the piano. Girl Scout promises and laws were given by Althea Spera.

Entertainment was under the direction of Mrs. Harold Miller, leader of Troop 76, who was assisted by Mrs. Robert Hoppe, leader of Troop 100.

A marimba solo was performed by Barbara Mauger accompanied by Ann Steinruck. A one-act comedy "Buzzie's Babies," followed. The following girls participated: Dorothy Shick, Jean Graham, Patsy Miller, Joan Keely, Sally Sandt, Susie Rinehart, Betty Jane Syphard, Marsha Mauger, Marlene Berkey and Sally Moore.

Leslie Wilson played a piano solo. Barbara Caldwell presented an Irish jig tap dance, accompanied on the piano by Miss Pauline McShane, music teacher of East Coventry school.

The following Girl Scouts were also present: Katharine Swavely, Betty Jane Hewitt, and Donna Favinger.

A short business session followed.

Trojans Seek to Scissor Phoenixville Streak

And If Phoenixville Comes by Air...

Pottstown High's aerial defense corps talks over strategy with assistant Coach Morris Grigg as it preps for the invasion of strong Phoenixville High today. From left, the Trojan defensive backs are Mike Kriczky, the safety, linebackers Stan Chaplin and Sam Green, and halfbacks Walt Nixon and Paul Duttenhofer. Grigg is at right.

Cubs Trim Downingtown, 13-0, For First Victory of Season

Flaunting a vicious running attack and a disturbed beehive sort of defense, Pottstown's Junior High Cubs came off the deck yesterday to run Downingtown Junior High, 13-0, in a grid test before the entire local school student body on Franklin field.

The Cubs, who had been thrashed by both Phoenixville and Coatesville before yesterday's gayer outing were a vastly rejuvenated club. The metamorphosis was due in large part to the piston legs of Howie Bedell and Bob Von Hohen, both of them had been warming the seats of their trousers in the year's baptismal contests.

Bedell provided the thrill of the blustery day when he dipped into the Downingtown line, slipped through and cut away to the sidelines for a 60-yard scamper in the third period. That TD with a subsequent extra point boot by Roy Hoff provided the Cubs with their 12th and 13th points.

Pottstown had scored late in the second period after Al Fisher recovered a blocked punt at the foe 15 and in four tries the Cubs pushed the ball over. Large Ray Donnelly plowed the final five yards, literally pickabacking three blue-clad defenders with him.

A BRISK WIND that swept across the length of the field had its effect on the ball game. Pitchers confined themselves to two passes, both tossed by Downingtown and only one of them complete for negligible yardage.

Both Cub TD's were scored when Downingtown was looking into the wind, but with wind fore or aft it is doubtful the visitors would have uprooted Bedell once he was in full flight.

Coach Gene Kauler's clan threatened early in the game when Von Hohen, a thickset chap with a devastating straight arm, sparked an offensive that reached inside the Downingtown ten. But the visitor, who had beaten Phoenixville in an upset the week before, beat off this bid.

BUT IN THE SECOND quarter, the charging Cub forwards, spurred on by Fisher, Frank Babel, Tom Fiorillo and linebacker Donnelly, punned the foe back deep into his own territory.

An exchange of punts ensued and Donnelly, booting for the Cubs and with the good tailwind, slanted a 50-yarder out of bounds at the Downingtown 12. When the Whip-pets tried to kick away from that hole, the punt was blocked and Fisher fell on it at the ten.

A five yard penalty set the ball on the foe 15. Bill Kerr tried end to the 12, then rocketed over the middle to the eight. Sovs sneaked to the five, then Donnelly powered his way across. Hoff's kick was low, but at half-time, it was Cubs, 6-0.

POTTSTOWN WASTED little time in the third round. After the Downingtown club failed to gain and kicked to Pottstown's 40, Bedell turned in his ineluctable scamper.

It was the first Cub play from scrimmage of the second half and the slender eighth-grader was offered a neat over-left-guard opening. He shot through, outflanked a pair of secondary men, then raced along the tape to the end zone.

Downingtown held the ball over most of the remainder of the game and even penetrated to Pottstown's 12-yard line on a fumble recovery, but time and the dogged Cub line denied that effort.

Louis May Fight Again; Cesar Brion Likely Foe

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (AP)—Joe Louis, irked at his defeat by Ezzard Charles, plans to continue fighting and probably will meet Cesar Brion in Chicago in late November, it was learned from a good source tonight.

Louis himself was not forthcoming for confirmation, but this authoritative source said it was learned that the Brown Bomber has been changing his mind frequently over whether or not to fight again.

Now, the source said, Joe has made up his mind to go ahead and try to make up for the second defeat of his career.

Hymie Wallman, manager of the 26-year-old Brion, refused to confirm or deny that he had contracted for such a match. Wallman said, however, "I would go ahead and make it if such an opportunity arose."

Harry Markson, managing director of the International Boxing club, said "We prefer to go along on what Louis said last week—that he hasn't made up his mind and wants time to think the thing over."

"And when he does make a decision," Markson continued, "it will be his own."

In Boston, welterweight king Ray Robinson told a press luncheon in his home that Louis has been signed to meet Brion in the Chicago Stadium on Nov. 29.

Robinson, a close personal friend of Louis, said an IBC official had shown him the signed contract of the fight.

He added that the IBC also has tentative plans for the former heavyweight titlist to meet Rocky Marciano in Madison Square Garden in early February.

Robinson, who also holds the Pennsylvania version of the middleweight title, is in Boston to meet Joe Emdine next Monday.

After he was beaten in 15 rounds by Charles in Yankee Stadium last Sept. 27, Louis said "I'm through. I won't fight again. I done the best I can."

Generous Cut Lowers Series Player Share

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13 (AP)—The players themselves "divvied" up their money to such an extent that their shares from the 1950 World Series receipts turned out to be a little on the low side.

That was the explanation today from Walter Mulberry, secretary of baseball, as it was announced by Commissioner A. B. Chandler that the full shares voted by the world champion New York Yankees would amount to $573.95 each.

Thirty-two members of the team's entourage will receive the full shares. Thirteen others will get partial shares, making a total of 45 to get a cut from the World Series money.

Much the same situation exists as to the Philadelphia Phils who dropped four straight games to the Yanks in the World Series. The Phils also voted 32 full shares and they amounted to $408.13 each. Nine others got lesser amounts.

The all time high for a winning team was established in 1948 when the Cleveland Indians picked up $672.05 each. The all time high for a losing team was set in 1941 when the Brooklyn Dodgers collected $482.40 each.

The possibility still existed, however, that the players might get some more money. There have been requests that they share in the $975,000 paid baseball for the World Series television and radio rights.

Mulberry said a decision on that matter will be made later.

The Yankees, as usual, were particularly generous in cutting up their money. Dick Wakefield, the "problem child" outfielder even shared in the spoils. He was voted $1147.59.

Phils Purchase Infielder Hicks

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13 (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies today announced the purchase of infielder Clarence Hicks from the Brooklyn organization for an undisclosed sum of money.

Hicks, 23 and primarily a shortstop, played with the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast league last season, where he batted .339 while driving in 47 runs in 149 games. He hit 18 doubles, one triple and seven home runs.

Both teams are expected to unleash passing attacks with the betting fraternity giving the edge to the home town Quakers.

A Franklin Field crowd of 35,000—only half filling the huge stadium—will be on hand when the two rivals line up for the 2 p. m. (EST) kickoff.

PHANTOMS RIDE 3-GAME WIN SKEIN INTO FRANKLIN FIELD

Coach Heber T. Meyers, to whom a loss to Phoenixville High is a calamity second only to two or more losses to Phoenixville High, exhorted his players yesterday to spare him calamity. Meyers, speaking before a Pottstown High pep rally and more specifically to the Trojan team, asked for a full game of all speed football and said that "if you think you can beat Phoenixville, you will beat Phoenixville."

The Trojans, twice-victorious, but lumped lustily last week by Norris-town High, meet the unbeaten Phantoms this afternoon on Franklin field in the 38th renewal of a rivalry that dates back to 1905. Gametime is 2:15.

On the form sheets, Pottstown rates a two-touchdown underdog, but as Meyers pointed out in his lecture, form sheets are but so much bunkum when these two teams collide.

THIS CONTEST has been over-cast with an air of expectancy that springs from the 1949 affair when a subpar Phantom team jumped up to smear a good Trojan unit, 7-0, and taint an otherwise superb season.

Adherents of the Trojans are hoping for a reversal today, but if the Trojans do win, it will not be because the Phantoms are fooling.

Coach John Hubicak has driven his Phoenixville charges through strenuous, and sometimes secret, drills all week. He has the undefeated season glint in his eyes, and the gray-thatched drillmaster does not want any upset to spoil his plans.

BACK IN THE Trojan lineup after a one game layoff will be end Tom Pollick, who has been playing the best football of his career. The letterman flanker nabbed a touchdown pass against Ben Franklin, then caught another that set up the second and winning touchdown. On that play, however, he was badly shaken up and was unable to compete in the Norris-town fray.

While Pollick returns, another casualty list will not be center Dick Weiser, out all year with a damaged ankle. It was expected that Weiser would play, but doctors vetoed that for at least another week.

Otherwise, the Trojan line will be at usual strength with Paul Duttenhofer at left end, Harry Hausman and George Cislak at tackles, Willie Walton and Herbie White at guards. Either Dick Hildeman or Jim Long will be the offensive center.

POTTSTOWN CHANCES, by and large, rest upon the ability of Walt Nixon and probably Carl Brown, recently installed at halfbacks, to unhinge the Phantom line. Any sort of breach will send Six-Yard Sam Green bashing through and a loose Green is a hard chunk of man to stop.

The Trojan line figures to give about as much as it takes from the Phantoms, who have bowled over Howard of Wilmington, West Chester and Downingtown. It was not inferior line play last week that turned Norris-town's victory into a romp win, but merely an inability to shackle the passing of Jim Randolph.

The Trojan pass defense came in for a bit of attention again this week because Phoenixville's Andy Yednock, while no Jim Randolph, is a pitcher of poise and capabilities. And he enjoys the help of two fine wingmen in Bill Callahan and Clay Setzler.

George Bracelin, the lad who overhauled, touchdown-bound Pete Peroni after an 80-yard chase the past year, furnishes the Phantoms with their full distance threat. Fast and shifty, the 163-pound Bracelin teams with Charlie Michnock to bulwark Phoenixville's running game.

THE LAST TIME a Trojan team came out of this series with a victory was in 1946 when Pottstown took a 13-0 victory. Over the years, it has been Phoenixville 21 times, the Trojans ten times and six games have resulted in ties.

Meyers, in commenting yesterday upon the series, said that Phoenixville always has been a "football town" while Pottstown never was exceptionally enthusiastic about the sport. A victory today, he pointed out, would do a great deal toward balancing the affection of local fans.

Trojan Harriers Lose 3rd in Row; Flynn Wins Race

Pottstown High's cross-country team lost their third straight dual meet yesterday at Berwyn, dropping a 21-34 decision to the hosts.

There was one bright spot however, for even though the Trojans lost, Ray Flynn of Pottstown was the first place winner, trimming previously unbeaten Charles Lee, by virtue of a stirring final spurt.

Flynn's final fling put him across the wire in 13 seconds flat, rather good time for the 2.3 mile course. Other locals to start and finish were Earl Rogers, seventh; Bruce Roberts, ninth; and Lloyd Hughes, tenth.

The field totalled 16.

Ready for Lehigh

—Mercury Sportsphoto

Big Earl Killian, Hill School's 215-pound tackle, is expected to be a mainstay in the Blue line today when Hill takes on the strong Lehigh Frosh at home. Killian is one of few lettermen on Hill's squad.

Hill Set for Invasion Of Hefty Lehigh Team

High School gridgers, with the birth of a new winning streak as their target, take on Lehigh Frosh here this afternoon in what promises to be a match between Lehigh brawn and Hill's football finesse.

The Blue, undefeated in 1949 and holders of a ten-game win span until Woodberry Forest broke the spell in Alexandria, Va., last week, owns an even-up record of one win, one defeat. Lehigh's yearlings are undefeated as a unit.

Yesterday it was announced that a major change in the Hill lineup promotes Pottstown High grad Dave Bleacher to a starting end berth in place of letterman Pete Scott.

Bleacher, whose flanking was hampered in 1949 by an early-season ankle injury, has performed in grade A fashion as a reserve wingman at The Hill and has been used extensively in both Blue scraps to date.

Otherwise, Coach Jack Riley will stick with the same lineup that mauled Williamson Trade on opening day here two weeks ago. Alternate halfbacks Hays Baker takes over the whistle call role from Jim Fenstermaker, but the pair is expected to share the job all day.

Other backs who will start are Captain Lamar Hunt at quarterback, Dean Leith at fullback and Al Fitzgerald at halfback. In the line it will be Dan Barren at right end, Earl Killian and Al Reed at tackles, Roger Judd and Ed Garbisch at guards and Bob Hancock at center.

LEHIGH WILL field a team that boasts ten former high school captains and more sheer beef than The Hill has had to cope with in several seasons.

Five deep in nearly every position, the Brown fledglings are expected to run from the split-T formation, the system that gave the Blue so much trouble when employed last week by the Foresters.

Standouts in the Brown attack are Joe Kryla, stocky, 170-pound halfback from New Rochelle, N. Y., and fullbacks Werner Seel, a 200-pounder from Lansdowne, and Martin Maurer of Watertown, N. Y.

The visitor can field a line averaging 195 pounds per unit in weight and backed by a deep and talented reservoir of subs. Hill has been grooming a deceptive attack in effort to move around and over the bulky Lehigh yearlings as much as possible.

Baker, the breakout back, is expected to carry a large share of the outside running, while Hunt probably will be pitching soon and often. Gametime on The Hill field is 3 o'clock.

Col Hockey Team Wins 4th, Trims Schwenkville 5-0

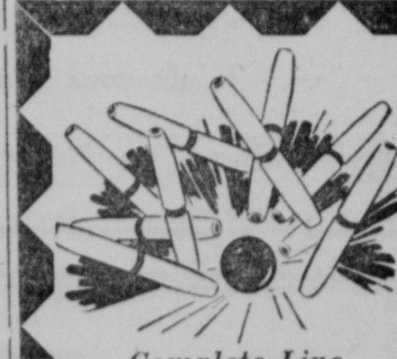

Three goals in the first half were sufficient to discourage Schwenkville High's girls hockey team, yesterday, as a Collegeville eleven ran rampant over the Birds, 5-0 at Collegeville.

Gwen Rosser and Nancy Moore both drove home a brace of goals to pace the C-T attack along with single goal contributor Lucy Francis.

Lutheran Church To Lay Cornerstone Of Parish House

The cornerstone of New Hanover Lutheran church's $56,505 parish house will be laid tomorrow during a ceremony immediately after the regular 10:15 a. m. service.

Erection of the 115 by 58-foot, one-story, Chester county sandstone house adjacent to the church amounts to the congregation's contribution to the celebration of the church's 250th anniversary, being observed this year.

The ceremony will begin with a procession from the church to the cornerstone, 40 feet from the church door. The Rev. Edgar M. Cooper, pastor, and junior and senior choirs will lead the congregation.

In addition to hymns and responses, the Rev. Cooper will give an address and Leroy Seasholtz, member of the anniversary committee, will read a list of items to be placed in the cornerstone.

Among the articles will be the anniversary brochure, pictures and a roll of Sunday school members, teachers and officers and records and lists of other groups of the church.

During the morning worship, these items will be soldered into a small copper box. Seasholtz will place the box in a hole in the cornerstone after he has read the list.

THE 2-FOOT BY 1-foot by 10-inch marble corner stone will be set in place by Lyman T. Schoenly, Gilbertsville, masonry sub-contractor for the project, and his grandson, Daniel Schoenly, also of Gilbertsville.

The parish house, begun in mid-July, will be under roof by Thanksgiving and completed by March 1, 1951, it was expected.

Its 12 rooms and 350-person auditorium will be used to house the 91 members of the Sunday school's infant department in addition to an estimated three classes in the intermediate department.

Classes of those departments now are crowded into a nearby house.

Of the house's cost $6180 will go for a radiant heat plant with individual thermostat controls for each room. The system, which will heat the floors, will allow children to romp on the floor without fear of catching colds.

The sandstone for the building, obtained from Arthur Lloyd's farm, near Pigeon Creek, is believed to come from almost the exact spot where stone for the church building was picked up in 1767.

Grace Church Plans Religious Instruction

Afternoon religious instruction for children will begin Wednesday at 4 o'clock in Grace Lutheran church, it was announced yesterday by the pastor, the Rev. Edgar S. Brown Jr.

The annual program, Children of the Church, will be held from 4 to 5 o'clock each Wednesday afternoon until June.

The school is for children between the ages of four and eight years, inclusive, and is open to boys and girls of all denominations.

They will be instructed in the fundamentals of the Christian faith, with emphasis on a correct understanding of The Lord's Prayer, the Ten Commandments, the Apostle's Creed, the Sacrament of the Altar and the Sacrament of Holy Baptism.

Handicrafts and a prayer and worship period also will be part of the program.

Members of the staff will be Mrs. Morris F. Houck, Mrs. J. Lester Bush, Arlene Houck and Carol Neyenesch.

Churches Will Observe Laymen's Sunday Here

"National Laymen's Sunday" will be marked in the First Presbyterian and First Baptist church tomorrow.

In the First Presbyterian church, during the 11 a. m. worship, speakers will be Herbert S. Eades, general manager of the Pottstown Machine company; Dr. Arthur F. Mann, Pottstown physician, and Dr. George A. McCormick, superintendent of schools.

During the 10:45 a. m. worship service at the First Baptist church, Edward Y. Good Jr. will take charge of the reading response; R. C. Shinehouse will lead the prayer, and William R. Schutt will read the Scripture selection.

The sermon topic will be "The Know-How."

South Pottstown Church Plans Harvest Festival

A Festival of the Harvest will be observed at tomorrow's 10:45 a. m. service at St. John's Lutheran church, South Pottstown.

Parishioners may bring gifts and food to the church today and tomorrow for the festival.

All gifts will be turned over to the Rivercrest Preventorium, Mont. Clare.

Former Pastors Return to Searles Church Tomorrow for 40th Anniversary Services

Members and former members of Searles Methodist church will participate in a series of services tomorrow marking the 40th anniversary of the church.

Principal speakers at the three main services in the morning, afternoon and evening will be, respectively, the present pastor, the Rev. James D. Matchette, pastor from 1944 until 1949; and the Rev. Edward J. Bond, pastor from 1912 to 1918.

Services are scheduled for 10:45 a. m., 3 p. m. and 7 p. m. A fellowship dinner will be served in the social hall at 12:45 p. m. and an informal hymn sing will be held at 6 p. m. in the chapel.

Mrs. Harold B. Keim, former organist and choir director, will fill those offices during the afternoon service.

THE PRESENT Searles church had its beginning in a small Methodist Sunday school conducted in Glasgow about 75 years ago, although there was no church organization.

In 1887, a lot was purchased at Fifth and York streets for $1200 and the cornerstone of a church building was laid Oct. 20, 1888. The building program was completed and the edifice was dedicated on May 5 the following year. The entire cost of ground and building was $6200.

The first pastor of the Fifth Street church was the Rev. George H. Bickel Jr., who later became a bishop of the denomination. Nine pastors ministered to the growing congregation between 1889 and 1909.

Since the church and school continued to grow, it was decided in 1909 that a more central location would be desirable, and a plot of ground 70 by 100 feet was purchased at the present location on Hanover and Beech streets.

The Rev. Samuel Johnson, the last pastor to serve the Fifth street church, became the first in the pulpit of Searles church when it was dedicated to worship on June 4, 1911.

THE CHURCH was named in memory of Thomas Searles (1834-1908), a devout Methodist.

One fourth of the total cost of about $40,000 was subscribed on the day of dedication, while a substantial sum had previously been obtained through subscription. The balance of the cost was underwritten by the church trustees.

In addition to the church building, Searles Methodists also own the parsonage at 1115 Bellevue avenue and the sexton's home at 149 Beech street.

Through the years, improvements have been made at the church through renovation and through added facilities and adornments. These have included a Civil War Soldiers Memorial window, a pipe organ and console, an oil heating system and additional rooms.

MEMBERS OF the welcoming committee tomorrow will be Mrs. Edna M. Schutt, Mrs. J. Lester Bush, Arlene Houck and Carol Neyenesch.

Pughtown Baptist Church To Choose New Pastor

A meeting of the full membership of Pughtown Baptist church will be held Wednesday, Oct. 25, at 7:30 p. m. to choose a new pastor for the church, it was announced yesterday by Robert Potts, church clerk.

The pulpit has been vacant since the resignation of the past Summer of the Rev. Lewis W. Button. The church will choose the new pastor from the four applicants, who either have preached or will preach at Sunday services.
